

Local weather and traffic on XM is essential. Have you ever even tried to find a weather report on local radio? You won't find much. In our near tornado alley area, I carry a weather radio when I don't have the XM. XM is a pleasant relief from constant advertizing. You would think 24/7 marketing is a god given right to corporations.